Merton Arts Trail does something strange to our perceptions of town and townscape.

Suddenly you realise that there are artists and studios all around.

You begin to navigate between the etcher's house and the landscape artist's house as you walk through the area.

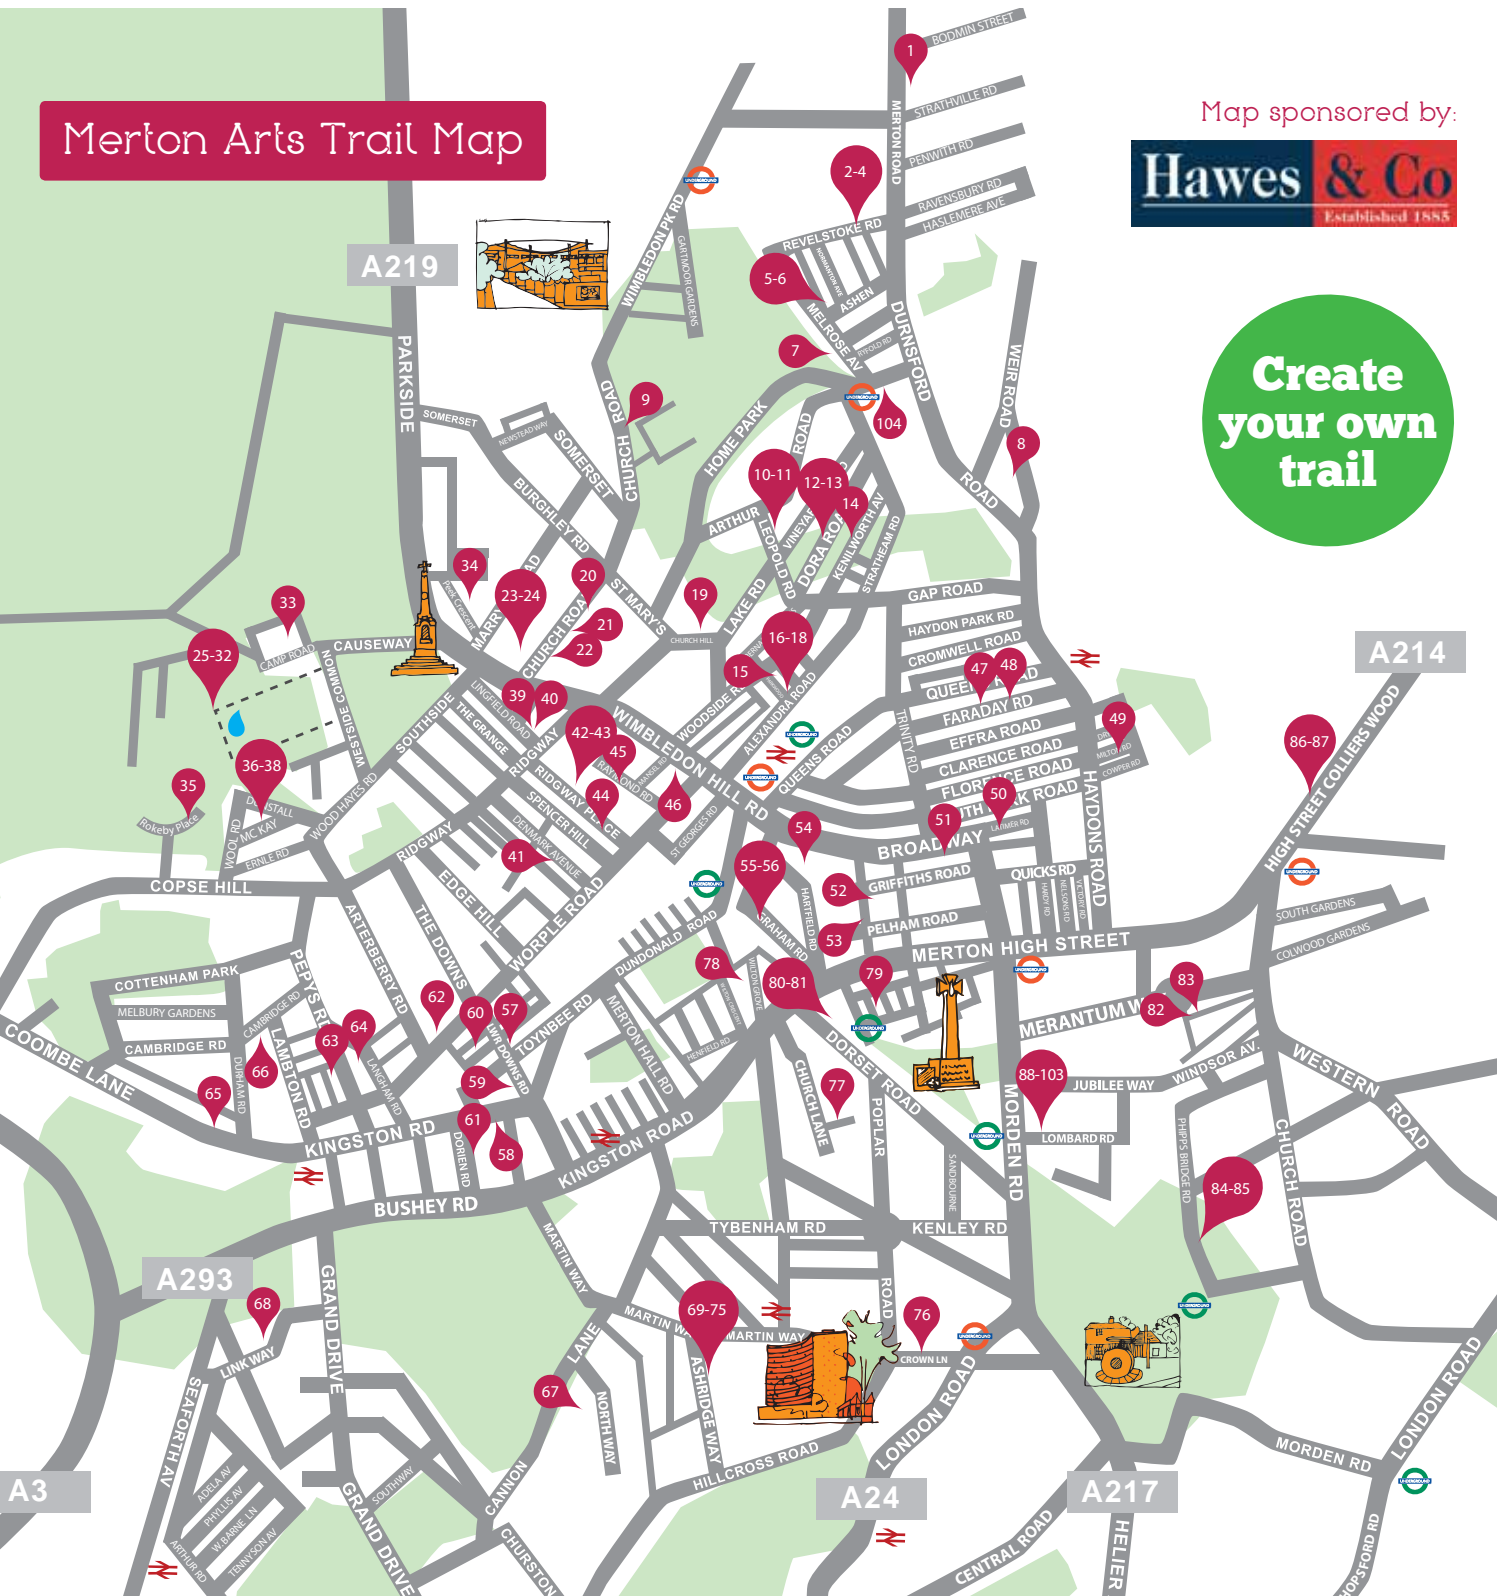

The Arts Trail gets us into the places where the work is actually created and alters our mind map of the city.

THE MERTON ARTS TRAIL 2014

20, 21 and 27, 28 September

MAT 2014 is set to be our best yet. More artists, more venues, more publicity, more fun. You can meet our artists at the Artists' Party; there will be a new Hub where you can have a taster of the art that is going to be exhibited around Merton; we have teamed up with Wimbledon Film Club to create a 'Mystery Movie' event at a secret Merton venue (first clues on purchase of ticket). And in conjunction with Love Wimbledon there will be a new Arts Market along with hands-on events in the ArtShed, all on the Piazza in central Wimbledon in the run up to the event.

So take a good look through our catalogue. All you need for an autumn of art appreciation is there!

Further details on our website: www.mertonartstrail.org.uk

Merton Arts is happy to invite you to their new HUB.

It's a showcase of all our artists' work under one roof, for you to have a taster of the fabulous art to be seen on the Trail, and help you plan your visits over the following two weekends.

Open 13-18 September (excluding Sunday)

Wimbledon Library, Wimbledon Hill Rd, London SW19 7NB
Open Library hours daily.

Special thanks to our sponsors:

Art doesn't transform. It just plain forms.
